

LEGISLATURE RATIFIES SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT

FIRE AT ELKS' CLUB LAST EVE CAUSE OF JOY

Marked Freedom of Lodge from All Indebtedness.

Shortly after the hour of midnight last night, the lights in the dining room at the Elks club ceased to burn, a bright flame leaped up at one end of the room and the members and guests assembled cheered loudly. The flame was the burning of the mortgage which declared Dixon lodge B. P. O. E. absolutely free from debt. The burning of the bonds was the last number on the program at the club house following the serving of a delicious four-course banquet.

Grand Exalted Ruler Bruce A. Campbell arrived in Dixon by automobile from Sterling about 8 o'clock and was taken directly to the club house where he was met by Exalted Ruler Charles E. Miller and all of the Past Exalted Rulers and present officers of the lodge. A short lodge meeting was held after which the members and their many out-of-town guests retired to the dining room, where they enjoyed one of the best banquets ever served in the lodge building.

After the banquet, Toastmaster Charles E. Miller gave a short talk and called upon Col. W. B. Brinton, who in a few well selected and brief remarks, introduced the speaker of the evening, with whom he has been acquainted for many years. Grand Exalted Ruler Bruce A. Campbell was formally introduced by Toastmaster Charles E. Miller, Exalted Ruler of Dixon Lodge. In part, the speaker, addressed the lodge as follows:

Grand Exalted Ruler.

"Brother Exalted Ruler and my brothers of Dixon lodge and other brothers gathered here this evening. It is indeed a pleasure to be here with you in Dixon this evening at this splendid banquet incident to the burning of the mortgage on this beautiful home. I congratulate you that tonight, after a few years of work, this lodge is free from debt and you are the owners of this home. I only wish that all of the other lodges over the country were as active as Dixon lodge in erecting a home and then not being content until the debt is met."

"There never was a time when a man could feel prouder of the fact that he was a member of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks than at the present time. There has never been a time during the 51 years of existence of the order that the importance of Elksdom has been so indelibly brought to the public notice. In the recent war waged for democracy and humanity for a free and triumphant America, every Elk proved himself to be a true, patriotic, loyal citizen, with but one purpose in view—that to win the war and every one of us stood for a free and independent America."

"During those critical and pressing months, the lodges of the country as you will recall, my brothers, were not active in lodge propaganda in any marked degree, they were not after new members, but they waited until the boys returned home from the battlefields. Our grand lodge records now show that in the lodge year ending April 1, and during the three months prior to that time, that there was a net gain in membership of 33,000 Elks and other records in my office show that there have been added to the order since that time between 25,000 and 50,000."

No Change In Principles.

ATTENTION OF LEE CO. RED CROSS ASKED

The Board of Directors of the Lee County Chapter American Red Cross ask that all who have assisted in the Red Cross work in Lee county meet at the north door of the court house at 7 o'clock Thursday evening to march in the parade. Members are asked to come and wear their head pieces and if they have none to come early and a limited number will be supplied. All Lee county members are asked to march and the members of the Junior Red Cross are expected to march with the adults, wearing badges and caps. All members are asked to show the soldier boys who have been behind them and to be in line for the march. It will perhaps be the last time the Lee county unit will be together and the places will keep for all members.

THE WEATHER

TUESDAY, JUNE 10

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Illinois: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday, probably scattered thunder showers; not much change in temperature.

LOCAL TEMPERATURE

Maximum and minimum temperatures and rainfall, if any, registered by the government thermometer and recording instrument in this city for the 24 hours ending at 7 o'clock p. m. each day.

A PROCLAMATION.

BY THE MAYOR OF DIXON.

Thursday, June 12th, has been fixed as the day upon which we publicly welcome home "Old Company G."

There has been some discussion upon the question of closing hours for the day.

The man or business house in Dixon who refuses to lay aside his business for that day will have shown his lack of patriotism and appreciation of the service rendered and the sacrifices made by our brave boys while absent from our midst for over two years.

It can, but in a small way, show our respect and love for these "boys" to observe as a day devoted singly to honoring them that we refrain from all labor and the conduct of any business, except such as is absolutely necessary. If you are not so patriotic at least simulate as much for one day—ALL DAY.

(Signed) MARK D. SMITH,
Mayor of Dixon.

WIRE STRIKE TO BEGIN WEDNESDAY CHIEFS DECLARE

Only Concessions By Companies Will Avert It.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, June 10.—Only eleventh hour concessions by operating companies can prevent the strike tomorrow of some 70,000 telegraph and telephone operators, S. J. Konenkamp, international president of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America, said today after receipt of additional reports from locals in various sections of the country.

The only ray of hope, union officials said was that officials of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, might sign the new agreement thus keeping employees of that company out of the strike.

"Local chapters in many cities have wired President Mackay of the Postal company urging him to sign the new agreement before the strike," said President Konenkamp. "Mr. Mackay has always been very fair to us and we hope he will continue to be. It is not at all unlikely that through his efforts we may not have to call out the Postal telegraphers."

Mr. Konenkamp today sent the following telegram to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor which is in session at Atlantic City:

"The commercial telegraphers of the United States will strike tomorrow for the fundamental rights to organize independently to trade unions and to bargain collectively. The attitude of the wire administration under Burleson and his restoring President Carlton to control of the Western Union for the purpose of destroying us makes this strike inevitable. You are aware of the promises made to us by the government. You know how they were violated. Mediation, conciliation and arbitration have not been available for us, because the employers doubt our strength. But I feel confident we will surprise the nation by tomorrow's response."

TO ORGANIZE BOY SCOUTS IN DIXON

In connection with the National Boy Scout week this week, the local organization announces that at the next meeting of the Dixon Ministerial association each pastor will be asked to sponsor the organization of a troop in his church. It is proposed to have a troop in every church, not now represented in the movement.

All Business To Suspend.

All business in Dixon which is not absolutely essential will be entirely suspended for the day and it is anticipated the factories will be closed during the entire day in order that all may enjoy the big day and do honor to the returned heroes. Reports from about the county are to the effect that hundreds of people will journey to Dixon early in the morning and remain the entire day; everywhere pointing to one of the biggest crowds the city has ever entertained.

H. H. Hagen, acting secretary of the Y. M. C. A. is in charge of the reorganization work and the present organization will be used as a nucleus for the future organization. After the reorganization is effected, Elmer Rice, the boy's secretary of the Y. M. C. A. will be scoutmaster, in all probability.

SAM STARKS' CASE BEFORE GRAND JURY

State's Attorney Harry Edwards, Sheriff Frank A. Schoenholz and Henry Maldonado were summoned to Freeport this afternoon where they will appear before the federal grand jury in the case against Sam Starks, colored, who was arrested here a few weeks ago by Marshal Gallagher for selling liquor in anti-saloon territory without a government license. The case has been set for hearing at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

BOYS WILL HIKE TO LOWELL WEDNESDAY

The Y. M. C. A. announced today that the proposed boys' outing at Lowell will be Wednesday night and that the hike will be started from the Y. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock p. m. It is planned to have supper at the park with a camp fire and evening's entertainment afterwards. The boys will hike back Thursday morning.

COMMITTEES TO MEET.

An important meeting of all committees on the Welcome Home celebration will be held at the Elks' club at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and the presence of every worker is desired.

THURSDAY WILL BE CROWDED IN ENTERTAINMENT

Program for "Welcome Home" Day Shows Steady Show.

A marvelous exhibition of airplane "stunts," a balloon ascent by the only one-armed balloonist who makes a flight hanging from the bar of the parachute and who uses a "dead shot" parachute which falls 15 feet before it spreads, drills by the Sterling Girl Zouaves, challengers for the world's championship, big acts by the Ben Ali Arabs and Ink Drop (the biggest act of its kind on the road), athletic contests with cash prizes for returned soldiers, songs with band accompaniment by Misses Marie Rosette and Mona Jeanette, concerts by the bands, and the big parade of returned fighting men, business men, factory employees, etc., are on the program for Thursday's big "Welcome Home" holiday in Dixon. All of these performances are to be free and the program, the complete schedule of which will be published in tomorrow evening's Telegraph, will start early in the morning and continue throughout the day and night.

Banquet Boys at 6 P. M.

All the returned fighters who appear in uniform will be banqueted by the Dixon people at the Elks' club at six o'clock and the committee of ladies which is in charge of the affair is planning one of the finest meals ever served in Dixon for the guests of honor.

And then will come the big parade, in which all returned soldiers, sailors and marines are expected to march, meeting at the Elks' club, and after that there will be two big dances—one at Rosbrook's hall and the other at the Corinthian building.

Young Ladies To Sing.

The final attraction for the day was bok yesterday when Misses Marie Rosette and Mona Jeanette, two young ladies who have been singing at all the Chicago parks, were booked to appear several times during the day and sing all the new popular songs with band accompaniment. The ladies are among the "top notch" entertainers in the Chicago pleasure resorts and their appearance here will undoubtedly add much to the success of the day.

Startling Aerial Exhibition.

Of course the big feature of the day's events will be the airplane exhibition by Capt. Ralph C. Diggers, returned army aviator, who had about six months overseas service, and who was a member of the expedition which bombed Zeebrugge.

Capt. Duggins' contract calls for an exhibition of at least half an hour's duration, during which he must perform all stunts of which an airplane is capable—all of them thrillers. He will also make a flight with Lt. J. T. Fichards of this city as a passenger—a first opportunity Dixon people will have had to see one of their townsmen who became a flier during the war, in the air.

All Business To Suspend.

In connection with the National Boy Scout week this week, the local organization announces that at the next meeting of the Dixon Ministerial association each pastor will be asked to sponsor the organization of a troop in his church. It is proposed to have a troop in every church, not now represented in the movement.

MAY HAVE ROBBER OF ASHTON JEWELER

Crossed electric wires and other defective wiring at the Ben Hasselson home on West Second street started a fire about 3:15 this morning. The members of the family were aroused by the odor of smoke and burning wood and immediately summoned the fire department.

Upon their arrival the firemen discovered that the blaze had started in the walls of a bedroom on the first floor and had eaten through to the second floor. The blazefire had gained considerable headway and it was necessary to use water to save the entire structure from destruction. The loss, which is estimated at about $500 is covered by insurance.

SHERMAN ISSUES SHARP REPLY TO UNIVERSITY DEAN

Assails Faculty for Supporting League of Nation's Pact.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Champaign, Ill., June 10.—Dean Ballantine, of the faculty of the University of Illinois, recently wrote Senator L. Y. Sherman urging the senator to support the league of nations, saying it was his opinion that "the sentiment of the faculty and students of the university is practically unanimous in demanding the ratification of this covenant, and that nothing will arouse our indignation more than the failure of the senate, and particularly our representatives, to do their best to secure such ratification."

In answer to the communication the senator defended his course in the senate and said with regard to the covenant that he had "come to the unalterable conclusion that it is a menace to the United States government and the American people," and otherwise supported his stand. The senator's letter continued:

"I shall not vote even at the risk of arousing additional indignation among the students and faculty of your institution to make our government and our country subject to such a league."

"Of the white Christian races remaining, a majority will be dominated by the papal influence of the vatican. The league of nations is reactionary, subversive of free institutions and tends to return us to the level of the dark ages."

Faculty Denounced.

Senator Sherman denounced "those of the faculty as are perverting their places" and declared that what the dean's university needed was "a touch of practical common sense."

In conclusion the senator said:

"This letter is not private. I shall return to Illinois to defend my vote and conduct. You say you have been distressed by my conduct; I can say in return that the conduct of certain of the faculty and of the heedless, half-baked views of students in your institution, has been a matter of profound regret to me. If the state of Illinois cannot produce better results, the tax payers have carried the burden in vain and learning has but demonstrated its uselessness in the affairs of men."

Paul R. Thompson.

Representative Paul R. Thompson, traveling representative for Chapin & Company, stock food concern of Chicago, drove west on First street about 9:30 this morning and in front of the Trein jewelry store, his traveling bag rolled off the running board into the street, spilling the contents about on the pavement.

The driver did not discover his loss until several blocks west and when he returned the papers and case had been picked up and taken into the Trein store.

Mr. Thompson was given his belongings and he told of finding a traveling bag south of Dixon last evening as he drove into the city. A Telegraph representative was present and the salesman desired to leave the traveling bag here in order that the owner might find it. Accordingly he turned it over to the newspaper representative. Upon investigating the contents, several letters from overseas addressed to the Lee county superintendent of schools were found. Mr. Miller was communicated with and the traveling bag with all of its contents intact returned to him. Not only was the county superintendent most grateful but the stock food salesman was equally thankful that his property was recovered without damage.

Flees After Attack
By Allied Airplanes

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Kem, Northern Russia, Monday, June 9.—(Delayed.)—Allied seaplanes attacked four bolsheviki craft on Lake Onega, south of here, yesterday. The bombs dropped by the airplanes did not hit the bolsheviki boats but the machine guns carried by the aircraft raked the decks of the lake boats and silenced the anti-aircraft guns which were mounted there. The bolsheviki flotilla fled and was pursued for a great distance. One allied plane returned to its base, re-loaded bombs and rejoined the others in the pursuit. After the engagement all the allied machines returned.

A considerable part of the city is served by lines affected by the injunction and if operations are resumed on these, it is pointed out, the situation will be greatly relieved.

Why Brunswick Tires Win Preference

There are two main reasons—one, the name itself, which certifies superfine value—the other, that time tells the same story.

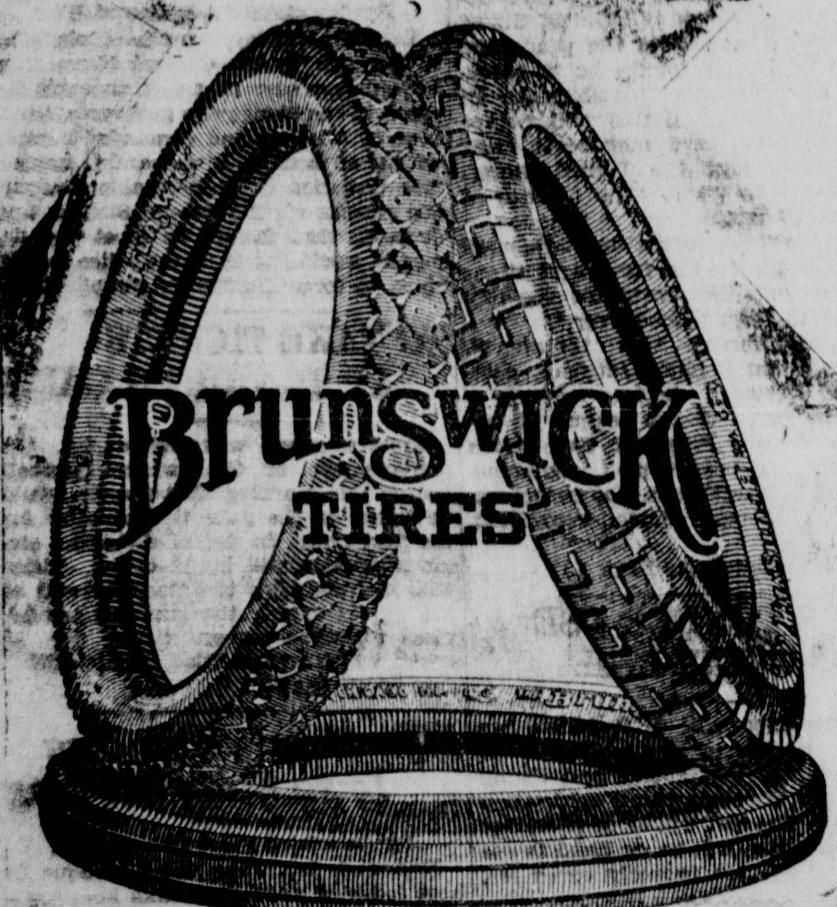

Thus reputation and performance unite in giving you all you expect—and more.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires. Many motorists would pay more readily, but the Brunswick idea is to GIVE the utmost, rather than to GET the utmost. And this has been true since 1845.

You can appreciate what Brunswick Standards mean by trying ONE Brunswick Tire. It will be a revelation. You'll agree that you could not buy a better, regardless of price.

And, like other motorists you'll decide to have ALL Brunswicks. Then you'll know supreme satisfaction from your tires—longer life, minimum trouble, lower cost.

FIRE AT ELKS' CLUB LAST EVE

any change in the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. The same flag still appears upon our altar, the same principles still prevail and many of the same members as of ten years ago are still with us. The organization is the same today as it was yesterday and the same yesterday as in the days and years gone by. The change, my brothers, is in the hearts of the great American people. In the late war the order of Elks practiced just what it preaches. It is the doctrines of the war work that has attracted the attention of the American people, not that we deserve any great credit, because we do not, but the work has fastened itself in the hearts of the American people.

60,000 Elks In Service.

"During the great world war over 750 homes and clubs over the country were given over in whole or in part and were used as headquarters for the American Red Cross as well as for Liberty Loan headquarters. There was never at any time a movement for war relief work launched in which the order of Elks did not stand foremost in the front. In spite of the age limit as provided in our by-laws over 12 per cent or more than 60,000 members of this great order wore the uniform of the army or navy of the United States of America at the time when the armistice was signed. The Order of Elks also gave that distinguished soldier, that great American, Brother John J. Pershing, commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces.

"I will at this time give you some idea of the work accomplished by the Order of Elks during the war, and quote to you some of the sums of money that were given in relief work. At the Boston meeting last year, $120,000 was expended in building and equipping two magnificent base hospitals in France with a capacity of 1,000 beds each, which were presented to the American Red Cross. Over $300,000 was spent in the erection of a wonderful reconstruction hospital on Parker Hill in Boston, which on last September was turned over to the United States government. A beautiful community house was built and furnished at Camp Sherman, Ohio, at an expenditure of $40,000. A sum of $250,000 was turned over to the government of the United States for the organization and carrying on of the publicity work for the vocational education of wounded and disabled soldiers returning to this country from the battlefields of France, and to loan to soldiers who returned without any means of support.

Helped Salvation Army.

On New Year's day, the Elks donated $60,000 to the Salvation Army to be used in caring for the children and orphans of soldiers on this side of the Atlantic. In passing let me pause to say the subject of the Salvation Army is one that is both near and dear to me and to every true American at this time. In years past little attention was paid to them as they conducted their services on the corners of our busy streets. We knew in passing that they did some good in this world. We knew that many who had needs were cared for and their wants answered by Salvation Army charity and that many were furnished with Christmas dinners each year who would have gone without had it not been for the Salvation Army.

Gives Elks Credit.

"Today, my brothers, the situation is changed. The Salvation Army has come closer to your home and to my home and to you who had boys 'over there.' With credit to all and not discouraging the work of any one, every boy returning pulls for the Salvation Army and they are put at the top of the list while they were fighting our battles on the other side of the Atlantic. Let us pause and consider. The hot coffee, doughnuts and pies could not have been taken and distributed to our boys had it not been for the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks who furnished the money for the carrying on of the work there. This statement is not one that I have made but are the words of Generals McIntyre and Booth at the national convention at Atlantic City last year.

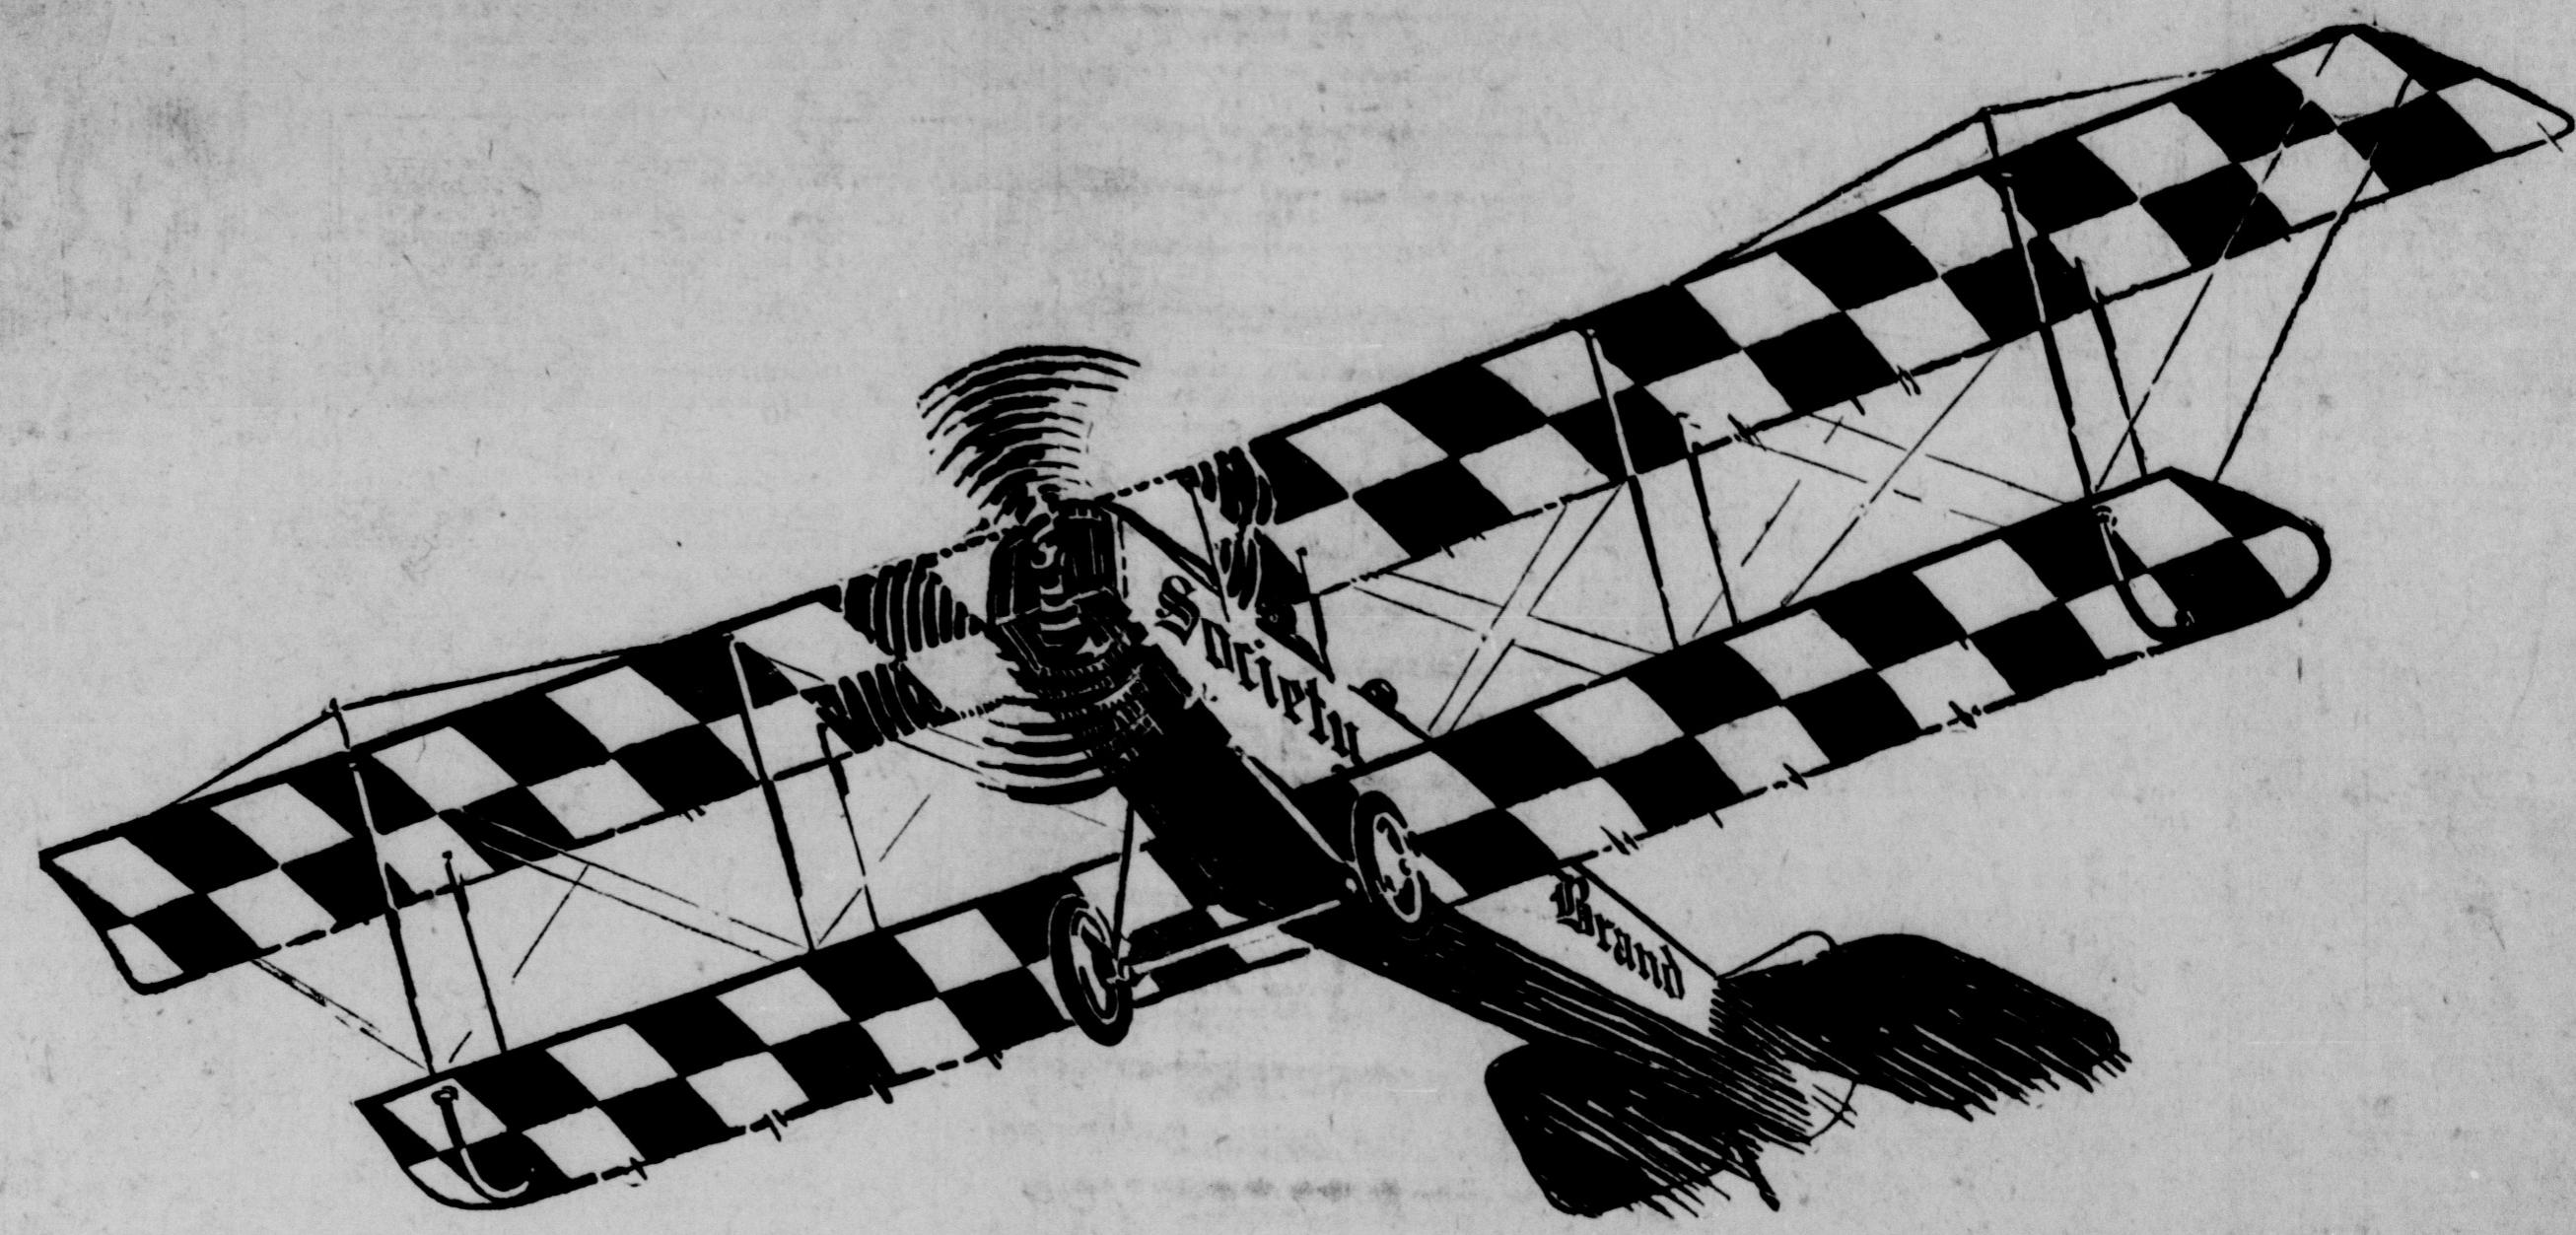

"The Salvation Army now wants thirteen millions of dollars for carrying on their work on this side of the water and again they have come to the Elks and asked for their support in securing this great amount of money. The work outlined is highly creditable and the money will be raised by the assistance of the Elks all over the country. I feel assured.

Can't Live On Reputation.

"Our record for the past has been a glorious one to behold, but we cannot live on past reputation for in the future we must maintain the peace work with the same activity as we have maintained and helped in the war work. We can join in the work in our own community to the advancement and progress of our home cities. We can take it upon ourselves to see that the wounded soldiers returning home receive that justice to which they are entitled. We can teach those men that there is no place in America for the man who is afraid to acknowledge our flag and our America. There is no place in these United States for the anarchist or the bolshevist and we can drive them out and build up this country of ours, making it the greatest country on the face of the earth."

The speaker was given a great ovation as he completed his remarks, which were inspiring to all who heard him. Rev. A. B. Whitcombe recited the toast to "Our Abent Brothers."

District Deputy Judge Carl E. Sheldon, of Sterling, made a few remarks in which he congratulated the Dixon lodge for its beautiful home and the success with which it has met in paying off the indebtedness. John M. Battelder called the roll of charter members of Dixon lodge, numbering 35, of whom but six were able to be present at the bond burning. Louis Pitcher read the history of the lodge recalling many instances of the past, some pleasant and some full of pathos. At the conclusion of his reading, the last mortgage, which was suspended from the ceiling by a wire was burned, and the ashes scattered to the four winds. Trustee George W. Smith applying the match.

Maxwell: advanced by fine engineering

FIVE decided improvements have been made in the Maxwell. One makes it look better. Another makes the electrical unit far more efficient. A third makes the engine run sweeter, steadier, and gives it advanced economy. A fourth adds a comfort in seating. A fifth produces increased durability in the top.

You get a Maxwell now with the famous Hot Spot and Ram's-horn and you find a rare delight in more power and more mileage at the old-time cost.

But it isn't a new model Maxwell. For this car is merely the chassis of five years ago with all the advances made in fine engineering.

This is the original chassis model of which 300,000 have been built to date—300,000 all alike basically, but each one better than the previous one.

Thus you get a sound, safe, extremely reliable car, refined to a degree, and at the same time you get the new improvements without paying a penny more. The price is still $895 f. o. b. Detroit.

THE TRUTH about the Silver Situation

(One of a series of five articles, appearing in this paper, covering the Silver situation and arriving at the logical solution of the problem.)

Article 1—Alarming Shortage of Silver

The most interesting subject before us today is the silver situation. A careful analysis of this subject brings to light the fact that the world is face to face with a silver famine never before known in the history of time. This is not a prediction, but is based on facts gathered from the entire world. The daily evidence of the silver shortage is so acute that it is commanding the study and careful attention of Bankers, Financiers, Manufacturers and all the Governments of the world.

We will attempt in a series of five articles to analyze the cause of the present condition and point a way out of the predicament.

In the beginning it is estimated that the debt of the entire world is more than Two Hundred Billions. Every dollar of these obligations is supposed to be payable in gold. Not one-fifteenth of the amount is available for the purpose of redeeming them. There is not enough of the yellow metal to pay the annual interest charge, and, in addition, there are the outstanding obligations of corporations and individuals to be met. As there will not be enough to go around, what more natural to augment the metallic base than by restoring silver to its old estate.

When a wagon drawn by a single horse is stuck in the mud, does the driver disdain the assistance of an equally good horse, if available, to pull him out? The financial world is not strong enough to pull out of the world of discredit with gold alone. It will stick there unless it calls silver to its aid.

All but the extremists who contend that so long as paper and ink hold out we need not bother about money, believe that unless currency has a metallic base backing it, it must inevitably become worthless. Gold is the metal which has furnished the backing, but the quantity now available is confessedly inadequate to bear the burden imposed upon it. In such a contingency sanity demands that the props of credit be strengthened, and when experience points the way to effect that result it is sheer madness to refuse to profit by it.

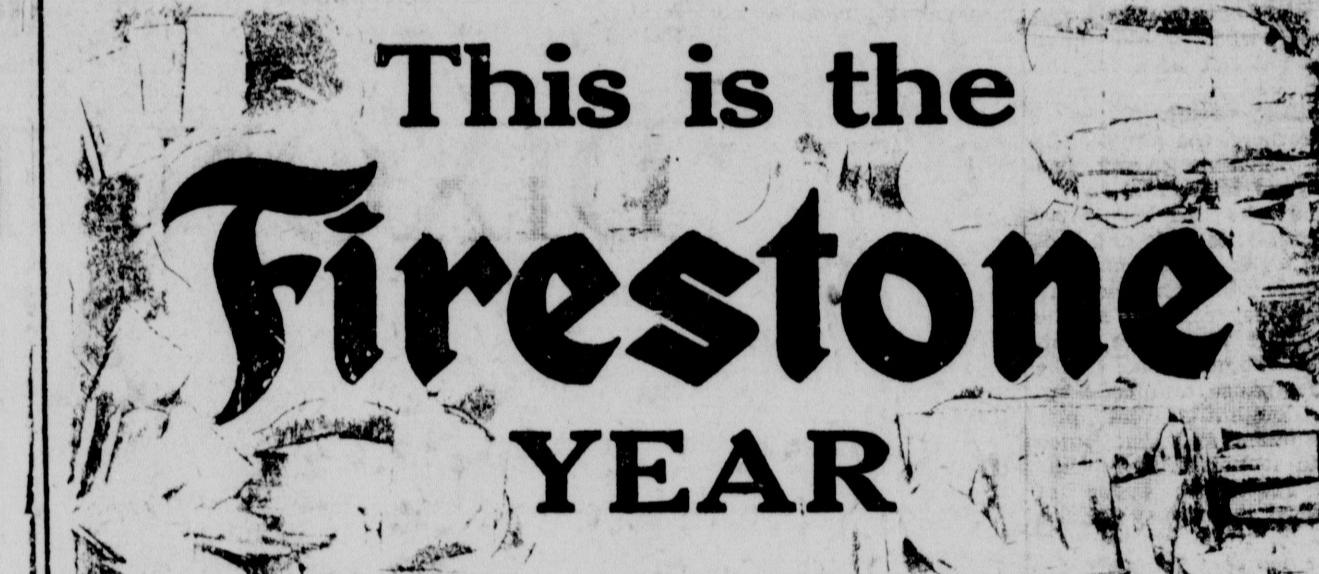

After the demonetization of silver there was a gradual decline in the price to around \$1.00, with an average in 1889 of about \$3.50. In 1890 the Sherman act was passed, authorizing the Government to purchase 4,000,000 ounces of silver a month. In 1893 the Sherman act was repealed, and from that time on there was a steady slump in quotations with slight reactions, which eventually carried the price to a record low of 46 $\frac{1}{2}$ in September, 1915.

Since that time there has been a steady upward trend to the market. The principle cause for the advance in price is the great demand for coinage throughout the world. The withdrawal of gold into the vaults of the treasuries and banks in Europe, as well as in the rest of the world, has resulted in the unprecedented expansion of the amount of paper money in circulation. The increase from August, 1914, to the end of 1917, has been computed at $17,000,000,000. Paper money is never so acceptable as hard money. It is frowned upon under some circumstances, the metal coin having a psychological effect that even the bankers themselves cannot explain.

Therefore, the natural result has been to increase the demand for silver coinage because gold was unavailable. What is more natural than to assume that silver will be restored to its old estate at $1.29 an ounce, its parity with gold? It will not be very long before silver will be put on a substantial basis for the redemption of fiat money the world over. Advocates are said to be now working on such a coinage proposition.

Be sure to read tomorrow's article in this paper.

CONCRETE CARS.

Great interest will attach to the experimental use of the concrete cars recently put in service by the Illinois Central railroad.The cars were built in the latter days of the war period. Concrete was adopted because of the shortage of steel.
These first cars will get rough treatment, and will afford a conclusive test, for they are to be put into the coal service.The walls are 1½ inches thick, the floors 2½ inches, and the whole structure is re-enforced by steel rods, as in the usual construction. The capacity of the car is 100,000 pounds.Concrete ships have stood the test of all kinds of sea weather, but a ship is rarely subjected to the sharp and sudden shocks which are of constant occurrence in the case of cars.There are over 2,300,000 freight cars in use in the United States, and the total of passenger and freight cars is over 2,500,000. If the concrete proves durable in the freight cars, there is no reason why it should not be used to a large extent in the construction of passenger cars, railroad, street railway and inter-urban, with a probable annual saving of steel of over a million tons.While the production of steel is expected to be normal with general world conditions settled, the automobile trade and other industries are yearly demanding an increasing amount of steel. To release the amount of steel that is annually put into new rail cars and into the renewal of old cars, and turn this into other economic channels, will be a great stimulus to other forms of production.

RANTZAU, THE JUNKER.

Rantzau declares he is concerned lest he sin against the interests of the German working people.Rantzau was junker born, bred and fed. His real concern, so far shown in exceptions to the treaty terms, is solely for the commercial interests of German junkerdom. The very people, the independent socialists, on whose account he is threatening not to sign, are clam-oring for the signing of the treaty.Junker selfishness and insincerity stand openly convicted.The Houston Post, exhibiting a bitterness of soul over the changed state of political affairs resultant from the President's demand for a Democratic congress, says: "The South is no longer in the congressional saddle; she rides the unfatigued vertebral of Democracy's jack-ass, and the riding's hard."We feel sorry for the lowly caterpillar in hot weather but have no sympathy left for the woman wearing furs.It is not strange that the Huns want mercy. Their supply, if any, was exhausted early in the war.Some people call boxing matches brutal, but they are not as fatal as automobile races.Vacations are two-thirds anticipation and the other third coming and going.It is suggested that Mexico's unrest may be attributed to fleas.

ABE MARTIN

ument was ordered printed by a vote of 47 to 24. It was not, however, until Senator Borah began reading the 100-word text of the treaty, which would have required many hours to complete, that opponents of the publication capitulated.

Probe is Arranged For

Decision to publish the treaty was only one of the numerous developments recently in the fight over the treaty, which is interwoven in the league of nations plan but it was expected by leaders to clear the way for the inquiry into the manner in which copies of the treaty reached unauthorized persons in New York, which the foreign relations committee expects to begin tomorrow or Thursday. Plans for beginning the inquiry were practically complete and the sergeant at arms was expected to complete summoning witnesses today, among whom are J. P. Morgan, H. P. Davison, Thomas F. Lamont, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg and Frank A. Vanderlip, all well known in the nation's financial circles.

Sessions are Open

Sessions of the committee will be open to the public, a departure from the usual method of conducting such hearings which has caused widespread surprise.

No word had come today from President Wilson in reply to the recently adopted resolution of Senator Johnson, in which the senate asked for the treaty text but a message from the president was looked for at any hour.

In the meantime the historic treaty league fight in the senate and the promised sensational developments at the "leak" investigation continue to be the big topic in congressional and official circles with speculation keen.

To Amboy Dance.—A number of Dixon young people will go to Amboy Saturday evening to attend the dance to be given by the Khaki & Blue club, an organization of returned soldiers, for which a Rockford orchestra will furnish the music.

Miss Gretha Hayungs has gone to LaMoille for a five weeks' visit.

James Conners came home from Healdsburg last evening to see his long tired feet—used by thousands. Men brother Robert, who returned from overseas Sunday with Co. G., a great deal will marvel at results.

LUTHERANS DEFEAT EPISCOPALS 13-11Win Fourth Straight in Twilight League Game Was Best One Yet.

By defeating the Episcopals by the score of 13 to 11 last evening, the Lutheran team of the twilight baseball league annexed its fourth straight victory. The game, witnessed by a good crowd of enthusiastic rooters, was the best of the season in the opinion of the fans.

The game opened with two scores for the Episcopals in the first inning, during which the Lutherans failed to score. In the second inning the Episcopals got four more runs as compared with three by the Lutherans. The Episcopals scored another in the third, while neither team scored in the fourth. In the fifth the Lutherans put over five runs and tied the score. Then they gradually gained until the total was 13 while the Episcopals were able to garner only 11.

One of the sensational features of the game was the running catch by Commissioner Slothower of the Lutheran team, of the two batters by Dr. Clevidence. The catch brought the rooters to their feet.

Babin pitched for the Episcopals and Brooks for the Lutherans. Both were wild and their support at time ragged. The lineup follows:

DIXON PEOPLE AT ROCKFORD MEETING

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that their case was hopeless and that there was no remedy for the case.

Go to your druggist and get an original bottle of Miro Pile Remedy, the discovery of a clever Ohio chemist, that taken internally, passes unchanged through the stomach and intestines and thus reaches the source of the trouble where, by its soothing, healing antiseptic action, it first allays and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles causes them to heal and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two or three days, even in cases that have resisted all previously known treatments really wonderful results have been accomplished. It is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded.

All pharmacists dispense Miro or can get it for you on short notice. Surely it is worth the little trouble to obtain to rid of piles forever.

IMPORTANT—What is known as stitching piles are not piles in the true sense of piles. For this condition Miro Ointment has been prepared as in such cases it is not necessary to take the internal prescription. If your druggist cannot supply you we will gladly send either of the above mail charges prepaid on receipt of price. Internal Treatment $1.50 War Tax 6c. Ointment 50c War Tax 2c extra. FEDERAL REPORT
ON CROP YIELDS WEAKENED CORN

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, June 10.—Bearish aspects of the government crop report commanded first attention today in the corn market, and led to moderate declines. Later, however, wet weather in parts of the west became more than an offset. Prices fluctuated rapidly on any unusual number of orders either way. Opening figures which ranged from 3¢c to 1¢c lower, with July 1.68 to 1.65 1/2, and Sept. 1.60 to 1.60 1/2, were followed by rallies to slightly above yesterday's finish.

Prices were relatively firm. Shorts evidenced considerable disposition to cover. After opening unchanged to 1/4c higher, the market continued to harden.

Advances in the value of hogs gave strength to provisions. Trade, though, lacked volume.

Toward the last, sales to realize profits brought about weakness. The market closed heavy, 1 1/4 to 2 1/4c net lower, with July 1.67 1/2 to 1.67 1/4, and Sept. 1.59 1/2 to 1.59 1/4.
